How to Apply for Financial Aid:

- 1 Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to be considered for federal and/or state grants. The FAFSA is available online. If you do not have access to a computer you may request a paper version from the Financial Aid Office. Students beginning in Fall 2026 should submit the 2026-2027 form. You will need your 2024 Federal Tax Return, your FSA ID, and Felician University's code (002610). Graduate students are considered independent for financial aid purposes.
- 2 Online processing time for the FAFSA takes 2-3 business days. The Department of Education will notify you when your application is processed and will provide you with a Student Aid Report (SAR). If you notice any errors after reviewing your SAR, log back into your FAFSA to make corrections.
- 3 You will receive your financial aid award letter from Felician once you have been academically accepted. This lists the financial aid you will qualify for. If you wish to decline all or a portion of the award, notify the Financial Aid Office in writing. Be sure to contact the Financial Aid Office if you have any questions on your award.
- 4 Complete Loan Entrance Counseling and the Master Promissory Note Entrance. Counseling is only required for first time Federal Direct Loan borrowers; all borrowers must complete a Master Promissory Note. Both can be completed at <https://studentloans.gov/myDirectLoan/index.action> (you will need your FSA ID from Step 1).

Federal Loan Requirements

To be eligible to borrow funds under the Federal Direct Loan Program, you must:

1. Apply for a Masters or Doctoral programs a degree-seeking student
2. File the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
3. Be a U.S. Citizen or permanent resident
4. Not be in default on prior educational loans

Enrolling in an Interest-Free Monthly Payment Plan:

The University offers payment plan options that are simple, inexpensive, and convenient. Depending on when you sign up for the plan, you can place your semester balance into a 6, 5, 4, or 3-month plan for the Fall and Spring semesters. We also offer 2 and 3-month plan options during the Summer semester. This interest-free plan does not require a credit review. You may view and sign up for the payment plans at our Felician Payment Center, located under MyFelician <https://felician.edu/my-felician/>. To view the payment plan schedule, please visit: <https://felician.edu/admissions/student-financial-services/dates-and-deadlines/>. For more information on our Payment Plan, contact Student Accounts at 201-559-6045 or studentaccounts@felician.edu.

The Federal (Title One) Teacher Loan Forgiveness Program:

If you and your school qualify and you are using financial aid to pay for your current program, this program may provide loan forgiveness for eligible Federal Direct Loans. This is a separate program requiring separate forms and processes. The U.S. Department of Education will determine your eligibility for this program Felician University is not responsible to verify your eligibility for this program. Please do not base your enrollment on this program, as it can be difficult to ensure qualification for government programs which are subject to reform and funding changes. You must call 1-800-4-FED-AID to verify your eligibility or visit <https://studentaid.gov/sa/repay-loans/forgiveness-cancellation/teacher> for more information.

The TEACH Grant:

The TEACH (Teacher Education Assistance for University and Higher Education) Grant (loan) is a merit based Federal Title IV program designed to encourage highly qualified teachers to serve in low-income schools in high-need fields. Grant recipients agree to teach for at least four years within eight years of finishing their teacher preparation program and to teach high-need students in designated schools that serve low-income students. This is a separate program requiring separate forms and processes, including using financial aid to pay for your current program. The U.S. Department of Education will determine your eligibility for this program Felician University is not responsible to verify your eligibility for this program. Please do not base your enrollment on this program, as it can be difficult to ensure qualification for government programs which are subject to reform and funding changes. For more information, visit <https://studentaid.gov/teach-grant-program>.

Official transcripts from all colleges and universities attended are required. Transcripts should be mailed or sent electronically to Felician University's Registrar directly from institutions previously attended, or they may be sent by you if mailed in an envelope signed and sealed by the registrar's office of an institution. Felician requires a 3.0 GPA.

Prerequisite Requirements:

- Should your program require any prerequisites, you must provide an official transcript before your program begins
- You must provide all official conferred degree transcripts before your program begins
- Failure to submit required official transcripts by the defined deadlines can result in a revocation of admission

REQUEST OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPTS:

There are multiple ways to request transcripts, and each college or university will have their own process. Typically, the easiest way to order official transcripts is:

- 1 Contact the Registrar's office at your previously attended school, either by phone, email, or through your university's website.
- 2 Submit a transcript request following that school's procedures. Most colleges and universities require a signature or other official request in writing. Many schools have a Transcript Request Form available to download on the Registrar's website. Some will allow you to order transcripts online.
Note: Some colleges and universities charge a small fee for official transcripts. Be sure to enclose your fee with your transcript request to avoid a delay in processing.
- 3 It can often take several days for a transcript request to be processed. When your transcripts are received, the Graduate Information Office will contact you, but if you have not received confirmation within 14 days, please contact us at (551) 288-1230.
- 4 International transcripts must be evaluated by NAACES (<https://naces.org/>) or WES (<https://www.wes.org/>).

ONLINE:

Official, electronic transcripts sent directly from university-to-university may be sent to admissions@felician.edu.

BY MAIL:

Sealed, official transcripts may be mailed to:

Felician University - Attn: Registrar
1 Felician Way
Rutherford, New Jersey 07070

Please let us know if your transcripts are under a name different from the name you used in your application.

For:

Teachers who want to earn a Master of Arts Education with Teacher of Students with Disabilities Endorsement. Candidates must be in possession of a CEAS or Standard initial teaching license in P3/K6/K12 to be considered. A CE does not meet the requirements for this program. The TOSD endorsement adds on to your current teaching license.

What You Learn:

- This program will prepare you to create a classroom setting that is inclusive, compassionate, and fosters a community of support for learners with disabilities. By learning skills and knowledge such as behavioral observation methods, evidence-based practices for those with Autism Spectrum Disorder and other developmental disabilities, and ethics and professional standards, you'll become equipped with the understanding necessary to help teach and improve the lives of uniquely-abled students.
- You'll learn how to support positive behavior, promote inclusivity, help ease the transition into adulthood, and more. You will also gain a deep knowledge of current laws and technologies that affect special education and how to design curricula in inclusive environments. Discover how to help maximize the potential of uniquely-abled learners to create and sustain independence in their lives and make meaningful gains.
- Felician strives to produce leaders that will help transition the world of education into the future by integrating social awareness into innovative curricula that make the most of current technology, trends, and learning models—all of which help serve students who learn differently.

How You Learn:

Courses are offered in both an asynchronous and synchronous online format with weekly evening Zoom classes determined by each professor. Typically, students take one course at a time, taking two, eight-week courses each semester (Spring, Summer, and Fall semesters).

For:

Professionals who want to earn a Master's of Arts in Education with Applied Behavior Analysis and Autism Studies Certificate. If you hold a master's degree, you can earn the Applied Behavior Analysis & Autism Students Certificate only.

What You Learn:

You can help to better the lives of individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) and other Developmental Disabilities (DD) that are impacted by behaviors ranging from difficulty with communication, academic, social, and functional skills. Discover how you can play a central role in helping those with ASD and DD gain a better quality of life by applying an effective systematic, scientific approach: Applied Behavior Analysis.

How You Learn:

Courses are offered in both an asynchronous and synchronous online format with weekly evening Zoom classes determined by each professor. Typically, students take two to three, 16-week courses per semester (Spring, Summer, and Fall semesters). Though we are striving to find placements and BCBA® fieldwork supervisors for all students, Felician University cannot guarantee practicum placement. We are striving to assist each student by organizing a list of potential supervisors and sites. To find a qualified supervisor, check out the BACB's registry of BCBA's ® willing to supervise candidates pursuing BCBA®. Students are responsible for successfully completing all degree requirements. To be eligible to sit for the BCBA® exam, students are also responsible for accumulating 2000 supervised fieldwork hours, submit all documents that are required. Completing 2000 hours is not a requirement for program completion. To become a BCBA®, students must pass the BACB Task List V BCBA® Exam. Passing the BCBA® exam is not a requirement for degree completion. If additional practicum is not taken, the student will be required to complete additional supervised field work hours outside of the practicum course independently to qualify to sit for the examination. Felician University's Graduate Courses in Behavior and Autism Studies is a Verified Course Sequences (VCS) by the Association for Behavior Analysis International, and the core course sequence is approved by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board® (BACB®). The BACB is the only credentialing organization for professionals within the discipline.

Career Outcomes:

This program will prepare professionals to understand behavioral patterns in relation to the environment and help support prosocial behavior in individuals with unique abilities. Through active class discussions of course materials and a field experience, students gain the knowledge and skills needed to understand and work effectively with people from diverse backgrounds and settings using the principles of Applied Behavior Analysis.

Degree Requirements:

This is a tentative course schedule and is subject to change. You will receive your specific course schedule upon acceptance. For a transfer credit review, please refer to Step 8 of the admissions checklist.

Transfer Credits

We can consider accepting 6 credit hours into our Certificate & Masters programs and 15 credit hours into our Doctor of Education programs, taken within the past 10 years, provided they are directly related to the program for which you are applying. Please fill out a transfer credit review request form and include course descriptions or a syllabus. When you have been accepted, our program director will then review for any possible transfer credits. Felician will accept only two transfer credit requests per student, totaling a maximum of two courses for review. Once a transfer request is submitted, if the courses are accepted, they cannot be substituted. If the courses are not accepted, you may submit one additional request, but no more. If you have not yet been accepted, an ID has not yet been generated for you. You may enter any character into the ID field as a placeholder in the meantime.
