Important Information

About Union University

Union University is an academic community, affiliated with the Tennessee Baptist Convention, equipping persons to think Christianly and serve faithfully in ways consistent with its core values of being excellence-driven, Christ-centered, people-focused, and future-directed. These values shape its identity as an institution which prioritizes liberal arts based undergraduate education enhanced by professional and graduate programs. The academic community is composed of quality faculty, staff, and students working together in a caring, grace-filled environment conducive to the development of character, servant leadership, and cultural engagement.

Admission Requirements

In order to be considered for admission, applicants must meet academic requirements and other admission criteria established by Union University. The university reserves the right to deny admission to applicants who do not possess adequate preparation and/or those who fail to meet other admissions criteria. Students who are admitted are required to abide by university policies and regulations. Please review all items in the application checklist of your chosen program and reach out to the graduate information office with any questions.

Transfer Credits

Students who have completed graduate-level courses at another institution may transfer up to 12-27 graduate credits, if the courses are judged equivalent to those required for Union University's graduate education program.
